STATE OF GEORGIA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
ATLANTA 30334-0090

Nathan Deal
GOVERNOR

The Georgia State Senate
The Honorable Casey Cagle, Lieutenant Governor

The Georgia House of Representatives
The Honorable David Ralston, Speaker

The Citizens and Families of Georgia

Dear Lieutenant Governor, Mr. Speaker, Members of the Georgia General Assembly, and Fellow Georgians,

Georgia continues to lead the nation as a global destination for business and investment. Our strong economy, low cost of doing business, and world class workforce are amongst our most valuable assets in bringing jobs and investment to our state. Our attractive business climate has helped Georgia's economic growth accelerate in recent years. FY 2014 and the first half of FY 2015 have seen sustained growth in our labor markets in both numbers of jobs as well as wages and income, growth that has extended beyond metro Atlanta across the state. My Amended FY 2015 and FY 2016 budgets expect Georgia to maintain its growth in the current year with accelerated growth in FY 2016 and seeks to build a strong foundation for the long-term prosperity of our state.

Key to our state's economic success is having the No. 1 ranked workforce in the nation. In order to attract business to our state, we must have a workforce ready to meet the increasingly complex demands of the global marketplace. A strong education is fundamental in ensuring our citizens have the skills to meet those needs. Therefore, my budget seeks to strengthen our state's education systems at all levels and for all Georgians.

My first and foremost priority is to see to it that every child in Georgia receives a quality K-12 education so that he or she is fully prepared to excel in future endeavors. In order to do so, we must provide our schools and our teachers with the resources and support necessary to meet the academic needs of their students. The Amended FY 2015 budget not only fully funds K-12 enrollment growth, but also provides an additional $15 million for local governments through the Forestland Protection Grant, $8.3 million of which will go directly to local school systems. The Amended budget also includes an additional $35 million in grants for local schools to meet demand in the Connections for Classrooms program, continuing my initiative to deliver broadband internet access to every classroom in Georgia so that students statewide have access to high-quality, digital learning opportunities.

In FY 2016, as in FY 2015, my budget again includes more than half a billion dollars in new funding for the Department of Education and our local school systems. This includes $239 million for enrollment growth and training and experience as well as an additional $280 million that will enable schools to increase instructional days, eliminate furlough days, and enhance teacher salaries. The budget also includes more than $230 million in bonds for capital projects in local school systems. These enhancements will give local school systems both the resources and the flexibility to meet their most pressing needs in the upcoming school year.

Laying a foundation for a lifetime of learning begins at the very earliest ages. We must ensure that our youngest Georgians have access to high-quality Pre-K opportunities and that they enter school prepared to learn. Therefore, my budget includes funds to provide additional instruction and transitional assistance to low-income rising Pre-K students and Kindergartners across the state so that they enter Kindergarten ready for success. My budget also restores two planning days for our Pre-K teachers to provide them with the time and resources necessary in preparing a high-quality curriculum for Georgia's 4-year-olds.

We must also make sure that we provide our students with affordable access to a high-quality higher education to prepare them with the skills they will need for the jobs of a 21st century global economy. Therefore, my budget provides a 3 percent increase in awards for HOPE scholarships and grants as well as providing an additional $6 million in low-interest loans for students who have exhausted their scholarship and grant opportunities. My FY 2016 budget also includes $51.9 million for resident instruction and $198 million in bonds for capital projects for the University System.

Finally, we must look beyond the traditional classroom in providing educational opportunities to all Georgians. A strong educational foundation is crucial to realizing future opportunities, and nowhere is that more apparent than in our criminal justice system. Education and opportunity are essential in stopping the revolving door of our prison system. My budget, therefore, includes $3 million in Amended FY 2015 and $12 million in FY 2016 to provide additional opportunities for offenders to obtain a high school diploma and technical training so that they are work ready once they are released from prison. My budget also includes $1.6 million to provide additional counseling and housing supports for offenders as they transition back to society as well as $5 million for Accountability Courts and Juvenile Incentive Grants to provide community based opportunities for offender reform as an alternative to prison when possible.

As we look ahead to this next fiscal year and beyond, the future of our state is bright. I look forward to working with the honorable members of the General Assembly as we work to maintain Georgia's status as the No. 1 state in which to do business by continuing to build the highly skilled, dynamic workforce the global economy demands. Ensuring that each of our citizens has access to the education they need for a lifetime of success is what will keep Georgia a place we all want to live, work, and play for generations to come.

Respectfully,

Nathan Deal
